

KATHLEEN DELUCCHI: Kathleen Delucchi,

19 First of all, I would like to ask a question.

20 How many people does one person represent in talking

21 tonight, just one?

22 PAUL HARRINGTON: You're speaking for

23 yourself.

24 KATHLEEN DELUCCHI: I'm asking, does one

25 person represent more than just one person? For

129

1 instance, if I'm standing here, do I represent a

2 significant number of people or just one?

3 AUDIENCE MEMBER: If I hadn't been here, I

4 would have wanted you to represent me.

5 KATHLEEN DELUCCHI: I don't know if I'm

6 making that clear or not, but sometimes one person can

7 represent 500 people, and I'm hoping that tonight at 8 least we have that opportunity, to be that.

9 So I guess I'm not going to get an answer

10 tonight, but anyway, why was it such short notice? This

11 offends me as a Nevada resident. It is totally -- it is

12 just totally ridiculous that we were just told maybe

13 three days in advance that we have one chance to state

552301

14 whether or not we want it here. Obviously we don't want
15 it here, and how much effect is this going to actually
16 have on what -- you know, what's going to happen.

17 My kids asked me tonight, they said, "Why are 18 you going to this thing? Are you going to stand up and 19 protest? It doesn't seem like you, Mom."

20 I said, "Because I don't think that we were 21 really given a chance, and if I don't show up, how many 22 people are going to show up?" You know, every person
23 counts.

24 There was not one person in my office today
25 that knew about what was happening today, and if they

130

1 knew it, it wasn't enough time to really sink in and not
2 enough time to really want to fight this, and I think on
3 that basis alone it should be put on hold and stopped
4 right now so that we have a little bit of time for this
5 to sink in so everybody who lives here in Nevada and --
6 you know, really let people know what we're thinking. I
7 just don't think it was fair at all.

8 And I guess what I'd like to say at the end
9 is, no is no, you know, absolutely not, not okay. I have 10 a friend who lives around the corner from me whose son,

552301

11 seven years old, died of leukemia two years ago, and 12 in -- help me out here -- in Ferrin or Fallon, in 13 Fallon -- I have not lived here very long actually, I've 14 only lived here a year and a half, but it doesn't matter.
15 People are people, and I wouldn't want it where I lived
16 before, and I don't want it here.

17 There are children in Fallon right now who do
18 have leukemia and did have leukemia and have died from 19 leukemia, and we haven't been told why, and so at least 20 this time we got a week's notice in advance.

21 Anyway, thank you.
